Karanyasa

Angushthabhyam Namah | Tarjanibhyam Namah | Madhyamabhyam Namah |
Anamikabhyam Namah | Kanishthikabhyam Namah | Karatalakaraprishthabhyam Namah ||
Divine seed letters are established from the thumb to the little finger. Touching the palms and back of the hands sanctifies every action performed by the practitioner's hands, protecting them from negative energy entering.

Anganyasa

Hridayaya Namah | Shirase Swaha | Shikhayai Vashat |
Kavachaya Hum | Netratrayaya Vashat | Astraya Phat |
Bhurbhuvassuvaro Digbandhah ||
Divine energy is invoked in the heart, head, crown, armor, and three eyes. Through sacred tantric mudras and mantras (Namah, Swaha, Vashat, Hum, Phat), these energies are locked within the body. Finally, all ten directions are sealed (Digbandham) so no evil forces can approach the practitioner during japa.

Dhyanam

Bijapura Gadekshukarmuka Lasachchakrabja Pashotpala
Vrihyagra Swavishana Ratnakalasha Prodyatkarambhoruhah |
Dhyeyo Vallabhaya Sapadmakaraya Shlishtojjwaladbhushaya
Vishvotpatti Vipatti Samsthitikaro Vighnesha Ishtarthadah ||

- Bijapura ... Ratnakalasha: Holding in ten hands: citron (pomegranate), mace, sugarcane bow, discus, lotus, noose, blue water lily, paddy stalk, broken tusk, and a jewel-filled pot.
- Dhyeyo Vallabhaya: Embraced by Goddess Vallabha, holding a lotus in her hand and shining with divine ornaments.
- Vishvotpatti ... Karah: The creator, sustainer, and dissolver of the universe, the remover of obstacles who grants all cherished desires.

Manasa Puja

- Lam Prithvyatmane Gandham Samarpayami (Offering fragrance - Earth element)
- Ham Akashatmane Pushpam Samarpayami (Offering flowers - Space element)
- Yam Vayavyatmane Dhupam Samarpayami (Offering incense - Air element)
- Ram Vahnyatmane Deepam Samarpayami (Offering light - Fire element)
